On Feb 10th 2021 I was charged with three counts of contempt of court misdemour charges. I was booked into Lewis country Jail for my Sailure to appear cose. up to this point we had still the been delaying our appointments to discuss my charges on the contempt of court charges my Atty said We would start preparing for my case around early June. Again 2 was booked in Lewis country Jail on the 1610th of max and for the next 2 months I tryed every Week to contact my atty Mr. Blair. He never answered or returned my call. The lost week of June he finally came in to talk to me for 5 minutes we discussed my trial for the FTP. after that he began to stand up to Laure, I asked him about my other case set for the Same week of trial, he Said for the contempt of court case, "I don't think they have enough on you. The morning of trial 2 was driven to the fair grounds by sherif to pick out a Jury trial on the way there & was informed that my charges have changed and are now 3 courts of felony No contact order violations, and instead of looking at a couple months In more than likely looking at 5 years. As soon as we pull up I ask hird a lawyer and built eff my side for a defence. I could have brought in Witnesses and all Sorts of evidence to build my case. Instead of going in completely blind, uprepaired. Again I didn't even know these were felony counts.

I Still believe I Should have been charged With misdlemeanors or even possibly a retrial I would also like to talk briefly about the DOSA that the Judge refused to even consider every charge that I've had sinse 2018 in State of washington has been 100% drug related. I had tryed committing suicide in feb 2020 over these matter with my ex Wife and all because of Drug use of course and was sent to a mental health istitute for a week in Mc Kenna WA Since then I had been in and out of cascade rehab center, voluntarily as recent as pecember of 2019, as a direct result of the actions of my ex wife and hard Divorse & had to call the Suicide hotline very often to help with my Drug use and mentality, Daving the 2nd half of 2019 the Toledo police chief and Sag Sorgent would stop by to check on my well being

State of Washington v. Levi Hunt Case No. 55999-4-II

Dear Levi Hunt:

Your attorney has filed a proof of service indicating that you were mailed a copy of the opening brief in your appeal. If, after reviewing that brief, you believe there are additional grounds for review that were not included in your attorney's brief, you may list those grounds in a Statement of Additional Grounds for Review, RAP 10.10.

Because the Statement of Additional Grounds for Review is not a brief, there is no required format and you may prepare it by hand. No citations to the record or legal authority are required, but you should sufficiently identify any alleged error so that the appellate court may consider your argument. Copies of the rule and form are enclosed for your reference.

You must file your Statement of Additional Grounds for Review in this Court within 30 days of receiving your attorney's brief. You must also send a copy of the Statement to counsel. The Court will review it when your appeal is considered on the merits.

Sincerely,

Derek M. Byrne Court Clerk

RULE OF APPELLATE PROCEDURE 10.10 STATEMENT OF ADDITIONAL GROUNDS FOR REVIEW

- (a) Statement Permitted. A defendant/appellant in a review of a criminal case may file a prose statement of additional grounds for review to identify and discuss those matters which the defendant/appellant believes have not been adequately addressed by the brief filed by the defendant/appellant's counsel.
- (b) Length and Legibility. The statement, which shall be limited to no more than 50 pages, may be submitted in handwriting so long as it is legible and can be reproduced by the clerk.
- (c) Citations; Identification of Errors. Reference to the record and citation to authorities are not necessary or required, but the appellate court will not consider a defendant/appellant's statement of additional grounds for review if it does not inform the court of the nature and occurrence of alleged errors. Except as required in cases in which counsel files a motion to withdraw as set forth in RAP 18.3(a)(2), the appellate court is not obligated to search the record in support of claims made in a defendant/appellant's statement of additional grounds for review.
- (d) Time for Filing. The statement of additional grounds for review should be filed within 30 days after service upon the defendant/appellant of the brief prepared by defendant/appellant's counsel and the mailing of a notice from the clerk of the appellate court advising the defendant/appellant of the substance of this rule. The clerk will advise all parties if the defendant/appellant files a statement of additional grounds for review.
- (e) Report of Proceedings. If within 30 days after service of the brief prepared by defendant/appellant's counsel, defendant/appellant requests a copy of the verbatim report of proceedings from defendant/appellant's counsel, counsel should promptly serve a copy of the verbatim report of proceedings on the defendant/appellant and should file in the appellate court proof of such service. The pro se statement of additional grounds for review should then be filed within 30 days after service of the verbatim report of proceedings. The cost for producing and mailing the verbatim report of proceedings for an indigent defendant/appellant will be reimbursed to counsel from the Office of Public Defense in accordance with Title 15 of these rules.
- (f) Additional Briefing. The appellate court may, in the exercise of its discretion, request additional briefing from counsel to address issues raised in the defendant/appellant's pro se statement.
